

Haydar Reem Dbouk

I live each day with a set goal of doing at least one good deed a day. Big or small, an act of kindness is impactful, costs nothing, and is a step closer to change. I'm at my best and thrive the most when I am contributing to someone else's growth, and their mental and physical prosperity. Being in a position where I can help others is a constant blessing I am grateful for, and a blessing to put to use.

Projects

● Still I Rise
Brunel University | 2021

Where serendipity took a forlorn void and filled it up with love, allowing her to flourish and grow with her newborn, her prized possession. Still I Rise is a 15-minute documentary about Faten, a Muslim woman of color and an immigrant who migrated to the UK in search of a better life.

● Allure
Brunel University | 2019

With the aim of marketing to attract the viewers, I composed this poster, taking into account some of the most essential hooks, understanding the purpose of each and applying them to ensure the distribution of my imagined film.
